What if you could gift something that grows every year, earns income, and stays forever?

Welcome to Roovi Farms, where you can own a real cashew tree in the beautiful Konkan region of Maharashtra. It is a simple idea with lasting value: a meaningful gift, a real asset, and a connection to nature that lives on for years.

MAKE IT PERSONAL

Name the tree after your child or grandchild, receive a personalized ownership certificate, and watch 'their tree' grow year after year.

This is not just an investment — it is a living memory.

MORE THAN JUST FINANCIAL RETURN

Every year, you receive an annual cashew gift pack from your tree, and you can also choose to visit your tree with family. It becomes a personal experience, not just an ownership record.
